

Dance on the Shannon Welcome!

We are very excited to offer Dance on the Shannon, a week long intensive Irish Dance Camp Abroad! The camp will be July 14-21, 2017 in Mountshannon, Ireland. Workshops in Irish Dance will be taught by TCRG Joni Muggivan from New Orleans, Louisiana and TCRG Anne Burke from Scarriff, Ireland. The camp has open workshop status, making it open to anyone who dances under a TCRG or anyone who is not affiliated with any other Irish Dance organization. The week includes not only classes in Irish Dance, but also classes in Irish music and culture. Music Lessons will be taught by Michael and Brendan Grogan. This is an excellent opportunity for both overseas dancers and dancers living in Ireland.

We can organize a group flight leaving the Washington DC area, but you are also welcome to make your own travel plans. Keep in mind that flights leave the U.S. in the evening and arrive in Europe the next morning; you will want to include a day or two to acclimate to the time difference.

We have arrangements with 2 B&B's and a hotel in the area that have offered discounted rates. The details are on the website. Please make your own reservations. We also have information on housing rentals if you would prefer more space. The classes will be held in the Town Hall, which is within immediate walking distance of the B&B's and hotel.

If you think you may be interested in participating and you do not already have a passport, you should start the application now. For first time passport holders the process may take months. You can make an appointment at your local post office and all forms and requirements can be found online at <http://travel.state.gov/passport>.

You can find us online and on Facebook: www.danceontheshannon.com and www.facebook.com/DanceontheShannon.

If you have any questions you may email them to dots.idcamp@gmail.com

We are looking forward to a fun and exciting week!
